

Martini, design R&S Fornasarig

Una linea di sedute, sgabelli e panche intramontabile in quanto attraverso i rivestimenti si attualizza e mimetizza conformandosi alle necessità e diventa un vero passe-partout.

A line of seats, stools and benches timeless; through the claddings it is always actual and it camouflages itself to conform to needs and it becomes a real passe-partout.

Production: 2003
